

MyTransactions

Improve Efficiency in your Buying Process

A component of the MyEmerson personalized digital experience, MyTransactions provides instant access to your complete order and quote history. Using MyTransactions allows you to create requisition lists, generate quotes and populate purchase orders, delivering speed, collaboration and productivity for your organization.

Features

- Better management and reduce risk in the buying process
- Place orders faster avoiding costly mistakes and delays
- View detailed order status

Benefits

- Once an order is placed, real-time visibility into order status and tracking information lets you plan project and maintenance schedules more accurately. Collaboration between your engineering team is tighter as product information flows from MyWorkspace straight to cart eliminating duplicate data entry with increased order accuracy.
- MyTransactions is a powerful tool for executing repeated orders, forecasting budgets and reviewing buying trends. With a digital record of buying behavior, you have better visibility into spending trends and can make informed business decisions.
- MyTransactions is a one-stop shop to access purchase history, view lead times and have access to detailed tracking information. This allows for easier management of lead times with visibility to open current or past orders.
